ARE ALL EYES

DEFECTIVE?

Certainly it is that many people experience no trouble with their eyes. Naturally a very large proportion of those who consult opticians or oculists have defective eyes, because the trouble they have leads them to the consultation.

There have been quite a number of people in Greensboro who have nothing at all the matter with their eyes.

If you have any doubt as to the condition of your eyes it will afford you a great deal of satisfaction to know positively. I shall be glad to tell you.

SAMPLE ARGUMENTS.

"Men Will Buy More Goods When Drunk Than Sober."

All the friends of the dispensary are aware that there is systematic, concerted action on the part of a number of people to create popular sentiment against the dispensary. Everything under the sun, almost, is charged to the dispensary. As long as possible it is said the Benbow could not be rebuilt because of the "infernal dispensary." It is said that there is more drunkenness now than before. The court records show the reverse.

Just here it would be well, and make a much better showing for all the anti-dispensary men to have an understanding and map out a line of argument that would at least be consistent. (The man in the mercantile business says the dispensary is "ruining" him. When asked why and how, with a look of surprise and astonishment he says: "Why don't you know when men are drunk they will buy more than when they are sober? They will actually buy things that they do not need.")

If there is anything at all in the complaint it is an admission that there is more drunkenness now than formerly. And there is further confession on the part of the man that he would rather have a man in a position to take advantage of them, by selling them things that they do not need nor want. Another man makes the fatal admission that the school fund will dwindle because crime will decrease and there will not be so many lines to collect for the benefit of the school children!

The dispensary has many points in its favor, and some of them are being uncovered by its enemies. Better be careful or your own arguments will confound you.

But strange as it may seem, there are men here who would wreck Greensboro industrially and financially if by so doing they could add to the unpopularity of the dispensary. Talking hard times is the surest way in the world to make hard times and the man who does the loudest talking is apt to get his share.

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contribute to it--The Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21st, 1899.

FIGHTING AROUND MAKEKING.

No Details Yet Received at London.

BUT BOERS SUFFERED HEAVILY.

Cronje Still Shelling the Place. Great Anxiety in Official Circles at Pretoria.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Cape Town, Oct. 18--"Cronje is still shelling Makekang," is the news that comes from the front today, the fourth day of continuous fighting. Great anxiety is expressed in official circles. It is now said that Baden Powell has two thousand troops.

TO CALL OUT MILITIA RESERVE.
London, Oct. 18--Balfour has communicated to the commons the message of the queen in regard to the order for the embodiment of the militia. The militia reserve will be called out for permanent service.

FIGHTING AROUND MAKEKING.
London, Oct. 18--Reports multiply of the fighting around Makekang. No reliable details have been received from Pretoria.

A dispatch of the 16th says that Cronje bombarded Makekang after warning the women and children to leave, and that the British did not reply to the fire.

A Cologne dispatch says the Boers were repulsed at Makekang with heavy loss. Another report is that the Boers seized Lobatla and Bechuanaland, some distance north of Makekang. An arm-rail train going in the direction of Rhodesia was fired upon, and a sharp fighting ensued, several Boers being killed.

CAPTURED BY THE BOERS.
Pretoria, Oct. 18--The Boers who occupied Lings Nek have not been opposed.

Haffner, correspondent of the London Times, has been captured by the Boers.

DIDN'T WANT TO GO TO THE WAR.
London, Oct. 18--Last evening Aldershot, sergeant of the baggage telegraph battalion, suicided because he was ordered to South Africa.

Lieutenant Morrison killed himself rather than proceed to Jamaica.

TOWN OF CABLAS CAPTURED.

Lawton's Tropic Campaign Began at Midnight.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Manila, Oct. 18--Lawton's Tropic campaign began at midnight. A battalion of the Twenty-second Infantry, together with Macabebe scouts, crossed the Pampanga river this morning and, marching eight miles, captured the town of Cablas. Lower scouts remained on the opposite side of the river and intercepted the refugees.

Agulnaldo remains at Tarlac, probably in personal command of the forces there.

An Old Woman.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
New York, Oct. 18--Mrs. Lindsey completed the eight centuries at 4:18 this morning, making 91 hours and 8 minutes, and beating all long distance records of women.

Burglars at Mooresville.
Burglars have commenced operations in Mooresville. Saturday night two attempts were made to enter the residence of Rev. J. L. Shinn. The first attempt was made about 12 o'clock and the second about 2 o'clock. Mrs. Shinn, being alone, let them know on both occasions that the house was occupied. She did not sleep after the first attempt.

Happy Marriage.
Mr. R. L. Stewart and Miss Katie Andrew, two popular young people of the city were married this afternoon at the residence of Mr. James T. Minson on Gorrell street, Rev. C. E. Hodgins officiating. The wedding was quiet, only a few friends of the parties being present.

The Telegram wishes them long life and much prosperity.

An Efficient Director.

Sparking of the first meeting of the Choral Society in the Winston Y. M. C. A. auditorium, the Sentinel says: "The hour spent in rehearsing fully demonstrated to those present that Mr. Tillinghast was familiar with his work and would prove a very conscientious, painstaking, and efficient director."

ON NORTH BUFFALO.

The Revolution Mill and the Van Deventer Carpet Works

Few people in Greensboro know the extent of the mill building that is going on right at our doors. It has been stated that a carpet mill and a cotton flannel mill were being built on North Buffalo. But a surprise is in store for all who will go out and visit the place.

Yesterday afternoon a Telegram man drove out and found the wood and the old millinery with the ruins of the mason's trowel and the ring of the carpenter's saw and hammer. Driving along by the mammoth proximity mill and through the mill village we beheld numerous evidences of constant improvement. There are now over 20 houses there, leaving out the mill buildings, stores, churches and superintendent's houses. The mills are running day and night.

The large grounds which surround the elegant residence of Mr. Caesar (one, are gradually being beautified and are beginning to assume the appearance of a park.

Driving on across North Buffalo and in sight of proximity, we found Mr. Siebenberger, a most cordial gentleman, busy in the erection of the Revolution Mill buildings and tenement houses.

The hillside on the north bank of the creek, where recently on a rugged and rugged scene of gullies, scrub pines, cedar and sassafras greeted the eye of the man who wandered that far into the wilderness, now forms a forest and foundation for a large mill building, the only one of its kind in the southern states. Just on top of the hill and in course of construction are 125 tenement houses for the mill operatives.

The main building is 350x105 feet, two stories high, built of brick made and burned of Guilford clay within a stone's throw of the mill site. The windows are wide and high, built with a view to affording the most perfect light. Just south of the main building and next to the creek, but above high water mark, are two cotton warehouses in five departments, aggregating 2,000 feet. Alongside of these, a railroad track is built. Between the railroad track and the main building is constructed a reservoir holding 300,000 gallons of water. The reservoir will be supplied by two eight-inch pipes conveying the water from the creek above, where a substantial dam has been built.

A pump capable of forcing 1,000 gallons of water per minute is being put in. This will insure ample protection against loss by fire.

The mill will begin business with 12,000 spindles and 376 looms, and will be run by a 675 horse-power engine. A short distance west of the main building is being erected a large brick store building. Just north and beginning on the top of the ridge are the tenement houses. Down the creek a short distance is the brick yard.

Across the creek and a little further east are the new buildings for the Van Deventer Carpet Works. This is another new industry for the south. These buildings are of brick, substantially built and are reached by the same railway track that will supply shipping facilities for the Revolution Mill.

The main building of the carpet mill is two stories high, 20x50 feet, with engine and boiler rooms and dye houses separate. A store house is also being built.

These are the kind of enterprises which build up and stand foremost in the industrial process. To all of them we say welcome, thrice welcome.

DISMAL SWAMP CANAL

Reopened--First Surveyed by George Washington.

The Dismal Swamp canal, which was originally surveyed by George Washington, but which has been practically disused for a hundred years, was reopened for business on October 14. The canal extends from a point near Norfolk, Va., to the Pasquotank River, in North Carolina, a distance of twenty-two miles. It is ten feet deep and eighty feet wide. The occasion of the opening was celebrated by a procession of vessels with the torpedo boat Tusk bringing up the rear. By the use of the canal small vessels that do not draw over ten feet of water can avoid the perilous outside trip around Hatteras and its treacherous shoals.

By the enlargement of safe inland waterways it is quite feasible to send ordinary vessels engaged in the coasting trade from New York to Savannah through canals already built and the sheltered sounds that fringe the Atlantic coast. In time of war this means of communication might be of signal use in defending seaboard towns--Philadelphia Record

Inhuman Nature.

Mrs. Neighbors--"I was very sorry, indeed, to learn of your sad loss, Mr. Hayrix. You have my deepest sympathy."

Mr. Hayrix--"Well, I calculate it was partly sadlike. I had ten uv th' finest hogs in this yer bull township, an' eight uv 'em's deader'n a door nail."

Mrs. Neighbors (horrorified)--"But I was referring to the loss of your wife."

Mr. Hayrix--"Yaas, misfortune's never dew 'pear to come s'g'rl'y. An' I could er sold them thar hogs for $2 a head, too."

Repairing the Shamrock.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 18--A large quantity of pig lead was put on the Shamrock this morning, estimated at five tons. Hyslop remeasured her this morning.

THE PRELIMINARY SCRAPS

To the Great Political Battle of Next Year

ONLY THREE WEEKS DISTANT

Much Interest Felt in the Maryland Election by the Washington Departments.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, Oct. 13--With important state elections only three weeks off, but little interest is apparently felt in the executive departments. A gloom is accounted for by the fact that this is an off year in politics, yet it is nevertheless strange, since this year's battles are regarded as preliminary to the presidential campaign next year. Very few voters will go to their homes this year to vote, excepting in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Maryland. The clerks hailing from Kentucky, it is reported will not go home in very large numbers, owing to the expense of travel, but they will leave the battle there to be fought out by the party at home. On account of the bitter fighting put up in Ohio by McLean, nearly all of the Ohio voters will go home to help elect Judge Nash, and to incidentally endorse the national administration.

More interest is manifested in the departments in the election in Maryland, than in any other state, and as the state is contiguous to the District of Columbia, and the residents of the state can go home without any great expense, it is safe to say that every Maryland republican in Washington will cast his vote November 7th for Governor Lowndes. The democrats also will send a large number home to vote for Smith for governor. The managers of both political parties are making earnest efforts to take the full vote from Washington to Maryland on election day.

Although there is no contest in Virginia, except for Legislature, a large number of democrats from the state in Washington will take advantage of the low rate of fares offered.

Pennsylvania has a large number of clerks in the departments, and nearly all of them will go to their homes to vote on election day.

Hon. James Richardson, of Tennessee, is in the city attending the sessions of the Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Order of the Scottish Rites, Southern Jurisdiction. Mr. Richardson, who has just been elected lieutenant grand commander, to succeed the late O. S. Long, is among the best known Masons in the south. He has served several terms in the house of representatives, and is among the most popular public men in Washington.

Another prominent southern man who is a member of the council is Representative Adolph Meyer, of Louisiana. He is not now in Washington, the congressman, and Senator Teller, of Colorado, being the only absentees.

The Order of Scottish, which is also an old Masonic body, is also holding its sessions in Washington during the present week, there being many prominent southern men in attendance.

The order voted the other day to hold its next meeting in the city of Boston.

Judge Culberson, of Texas, who served for so many years in the house of representatives, is in the city for the purpose of codifying the laws. Mr. Culberson says that politics in Texas is quiet, and that the people are paying more attention to agriculture and business.

Mr. Culberson is of the opinion that Hon. Joseph Bailey will come to Washington as United States senator. He says that Bailey's popularity in Texas has not waned, and that he is as strong as ever, and he has no doubt that Bailey will receive the support of the majority of the members of the Texas legislature for senator at the proper time.

Miss Emma Hume, the daughter of Hon. Frank Hume, at present the democratic nominee for the state legislature in the Alexandria district, left her home on the Norfolk steamboat Monday night, for Norfolk, for the purpose of acting as bridesmaid to Miss Lelia Garnet, daughter of Judge Garnet, at her marriage to Dr. William Huger, of Charleston, South Carolina. Dr. Huger was graduated at the Episcopal High School, and later from Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore. He comes of an old South Carolina family, and has many friends throughout Virginia.

Postoffice has been established in North Carolina at Dyer, Wilkes county, two miles east of Champion. Postoffice has been established at Willow Springs, Wake county, four miles southeast of Myatts Mill, and 8 miles northwest of Holly Springs.

Star service has been established in North Carolina from Kintley to Concord; and from Seaside to Shallotte.

C. P. Holt, of Graham, North Carolina, is in the city for a few days. While here he is making his headquarters at the Metropolitan.

C. D. Ogburn, of Winston, is at the St. James.

Any lady who likes tan shoes can get a genuine bargain at Thacker & Brockmann's now. We have a short lot of regular $2.00 and $2.25 ladies' tan and chocolate laced shoes to close out at $1.45. All sizes from 2 1/2 to 7, except 3 1/2. Also 12 pairs $1.50 and $1.75 tan laced shoes, sizes 3, 3 1/2, 4 and 4 1/2 to close at 98 cents.

NEGROES SOUGHT HIS LIFE.

Fire on Marshal With Disastrous Results to Themselves.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 16--A special to the Times-Union and Citizen from Dunnellon says: "An attempt was made by negroes to kill the night marshal, J. J. Stephens and his uncle, W. H. and J. S. Stephens last night. Seven or eight negroes held up J. J. Stephens with rifles they had armed themselves with. J. S. Stephens, who is day marshal, was still on duty and came to the rescue of the night marshal. The negroes opened fire without effect. The two white men replied, killing Warren (name) and wounding another who escaped with his friends. It is thought the negroes had plotted to kill W. H. Stephens, who has been very strict with the negroes while he was marshal and had shot one in the discharge of his duty. Further trouble is feared."

BELT LINE R. R. SOLD.

S. L. Duke Sells It to the Norfolk & Western.

Durham, Oct. 17--The Belt Line Railroad, owned by Mr. B. N. Duke, has been sold to the Norfolk & Western Railroad Company. The deal was consummated today, but the purchase price could not be learned. By his route the Norfolk & Western will reach the site of its new depot on West Main street. The Belt Line is about three miles in length and runs from West Main street near the factory of W. Duke, Sons & Co., to a point on the L. & N. branch of the Norfolk & Western, about three miles from Durham. It is a valuable piece of property, and the price paid Mr. Duke is supposed to cover the cost of building it several years ago.

DOCT R GAVE HER HIS BLOOD.

Had His Own Arm Tapped to Save a Patient's Life.

York, Pa., Oct. 16--Transfusion of blood had the effect today of raising Mrs. A. W. Trout, of this city, who has been critically ill. There being no relative who was physically able to furnish the necessary blood, Dr. E. M. Froeh had an incision made in his own arm, from which the blood was drawn.

He Buncoes the Doctors.

Tarboro, N. C., Oct. 17--On Monday a man by the name of C. B. Mims, representing a mercantile association of 63 and 65 Wall street, New York, was here and did a piece of bunco work. He selected one doctor from each town, for which the doctor pays a good fee. The association seems to be an accident insurance affair, of which druggists and traveling men are members, and if any sickness or accident should overtake one of the members in Tarboro, the doctor here would get the case. It now turns out that Mims secured the services of two doctors, H. T. Bass and S. N. Harrell, upon similar representations.

These doctors say the plan is fraudulent and wish to advise their brethren of the profession to beware. They would like to find Mr. Mims' whereabouts as they would at once have him in the criminal courts.

Iron Company Incorporated.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 17--The Alabama and Georgia Iron Company, with a capital of $1,300,000 was incorporated today to deal in iron ore and kindred products and to manufacture all metallic objects.

Incorporators: Phillips Isham, Glenwright; A. F. Marmelstein, New York; and F. M. Jeffrey, East Orange.

Bone Pierced a Farmer's Heart.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 16--Farmer Geo. Hoyer, of Eppler's Church, this county, died today from the effect of a piece of bone being driven into his heart. He fell from an apple tree and two of his ribs were broken. A splinter from one of them pierced his heart, and was found there by the doctors who performed an autopsy.

Georgia Doctor's Terrible Mistake.

Homerville, Ga., Oct. 17--Dr. L. U. Rantz, a prominent physician of Dupont, was arrested today, upon indictment by the grand jury, on a charge of malpractice, in having removed half of the kidney of a woman instead of the ovaries, which he intended to remove. The woman died. There is much excitement in the community.

Let Us Hope So.

Two uncouth outlanders opened up an obnoxious den with greasy-looking reed instruments on the street this morning, which had the salutary effect of ridding this community quickly of all stray dogs and of even silencing with disgust the fiddler who has made existence unbearable in this ward all the summer, as we haven't since heard the dismal strains of his fiddle.

The results accomplished by the Provident Savings during the past two and a half years will bear comparison with any kindred institution. Its practical reforms and its improved policies are recognized by all agents who make life insurance a profession, and by the insuring public--Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21, 1899.

Till He Cried.

"Papa fell over my express wagon this morning," said Willie; "my, it was funny--I laughed till I cried." "Did yer?" said Tommy. "Yes," replied Willie; "panacaut me laughin'."--Philadelphia Record.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

See chapter of Harry & Belk Bros. ad today. Important.

J. M. Hahlik & Co. in their ad today tell you how to look stylish.

Hudson's ad is full of good things which he will have on sale tomorrow.

The big floral parade at the Winston fair will be on Thursday, the 26th.

Mr. T. T. Hay, a prominent insurance man from Raleigh, was here today.

An eight-room house on West Lee street advertised for rent today. See penny ad.

Rev. W. R. Coppedge is visiting in the city, and will conduct the prayer meeting at Westminster church this evening.

Mr. R. L. Reynolds, of Atlanta, general agent of the German American Insurance Co. for the southern states, was in the city this morning.

Mr. H. E. Cartland and Miss Bessie Cartland, of Lexington, were married there last night at 8 o'clock. They were in the city today and went to Raleigh.

The weather these afternoons is delightful, with just enough of the Frost King's breath left it to be bracing, though in the middle of the day it's slightly warm.

A fellow with an old looking mustache in his hand, a box and a placard bearing the inscription: "Daniel Boone's old flint lock gun," got off 33 today and went toward Raleigh.

A pair of spectacles were lost on South Elm street this morning by a lady. She thinks they were lost somewhere near Bendheim's store. The finder is requested to leave them at the Telegram office.

A Crescent bicycle No. 9 was found this morning in the cut where the Mt. Airy division runs under the main line of the Southern. The police think the wheel had been stolen and left there. It bears signs of rough use.

HIGH POINT ODD FELLOWS.

Twenty new members "Finished Up" Last Night.

Mr. R. W. Murray, of this city, visited Repton Lodge No. 65, I. O. O. F., at High Point last night and instructed the members in the secret work and rules of the order. He was accompanied by Messrs. J. T. Rankin, T. L. McLean and R. L. Woodard, who assisted in conferring the degrees on twenty new members.

Odd Fellowship is on the move in High Point. Repton Lodge, which had but twelve members July 1st, now has, including the members "finished up" last night, over forty. Mr. Murray and party visited their lodge last night and conferred the degrees by special invitation.

A Magnanimous Act.

Mr. W. D. Mendenhall, secretary and treasurer of the Guilford Lumber Co., was at the depot this morning to see twenty-two employees of his company off to the Raleigh fair. They were given a free trip by their employers.

Mr. Mendenhall wanted to go with them but pressing business matters kept him at home. Giving these men a holiday and a free trip is a graceful act and will be duly appreciated.

That looks like labor and capital getting on exceedingly friendly terms, and sounds like there are some good-hearted men left.

One-Sid-d Swap.

Wilson Kinley, who lives near the city, was here yesterday, and going home last night put his buggy horse in the stable. This morning he found in place of the horse an old, worn out mule. The swap had been made in the night and without Mr. Kinley's knowledge or sanction. He was in the city with the mule this morning and one man said that as the mule had on a bridle he would give 75 cents for him. No clue to the "trader."

Our High Point Letter.

We always regret the failure of our High Point correspondence to show up, which is the case today. It does not occur often, as our representative there is very prompt. It occasionally happens that the letter is carried by this city and returned on the south-bound train at night. We make this note that our correspondent and other friends in High Point may know why there is no news from there in the paper today.

Cop'n on the Roads.

Captain Belton, late of the Granite City Guards, Mt. Airy, who was sent to jail at Dobson some months ago for arresting a citizen on the streets of Mt. Airy, was convicted last week and sentenced to five months on the county roads. He was sent to Winston yesterday and Forsyth will get the benefit of his labors.

Have you seen those high cut hunting shoes at Thacker & Brockmann's? They are equal to boots and look a great deal better, and while they are just the thing for hunting and rough weather, they can be used for every day all round wear.

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contribute to it--The Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21st, 1899.

We have just opened a fresh shipment of girls' spring beeled shoes, button and laced, with patent leather and kid tips, price $1.25 and $1.50. They are excellent shoes, fit well, look nice and wear well. All sizes from 11 1/2 to two. Thacker & Brockmann.

Probably Suicide.

There appears to be excellent grounds for the belief that Ed Strauchan, the young white man who was killed by a train here last night, deliberately committed suicide by putting his head on a rail. His body lay outside the track, his head inside. The two were only held together by the skin and a little flesh on the side. Yesterday Strauchan said to a bar-keeper that he wanted his head cut off by a train, and that he intended to get on the track and have it done. Raleigh Cor. Charlotte Observer.

Stands at the Head.

The Carolina Pythian quotes Judge Hinckley, president of the board of control, in which he makes the important announcement that North Carolina stands at the head of the list in per cent of membership insured in the K. of P. Endowment Plan, and that the credit is due to the fine efforts of G. H. Royter, state organizer.

The Pythian add that "it is a success of which any man should be proud."

But Don't Tell Some Folks.

A German physician has made a study of the effect of singing on the action of the lungs and heart, on diseases of the heart, on the pulmonary circulation, on the blood, on the vocal apparatus, on the upper air passages, on the ear, on the general health, on the development of the chest, and on the activity of the digestive organs. He maintains it is excellent in every way, and strongly recommends it as a means of health.

Daughters of the Confederacy.

The Guilford Chapter will hold its regular monthly meeting at the residence of Mrs. J. Sterling Jones, Thursday afternoon, at half past 3 o'clock.

Prompt and full attendance earnestly requested, as there will be important business before the meeting. Bring your credentials, to be forwarded before the convention meets.

Plaids for separate skirts, in up-to-date styles and colorings, and a pretty line of silk shirt waist patterns are being shown at Thacker & Brockmann's, this week.
